Survey People.

It is said that America is becoming noted for the obesity of women; therefore antifat remedies are sown broadcast over the land. But it is certain that many women are afflicted with scragginess. The remedy is within their reach. A diet of milk thickened with meal of any kind, arrow-root or wheat starch preferable, or cracked wheat, with either milk or sugar, will cause almost any one who is not ill or consumptive, or preternaturally active, to be brought like other domestic animals, into decent embonpoint. It is on this kind of food that the wealthier classes of India obtain the coating of musculous, effeminate fat which they prize as a mark of grade, the head of the house often bid to "sit and get fat for the honor of the family." They add butter, but there is nothing in butter which is not in milk. There can, therefore, be no doubt that milk and meal will fatten anybody who can be fattened at all, but, of course, they must be swallowed in considerable quantities. Writing on this subject, a physician gives a few rules which are easily followed: Eat plenty of fresh bread. Before eight o'clock in the morning, when in bed, take a basin of soup, not too much, or if you prefer it, a cup of good chocolate. Breakfast at eleven o'clock on fresh eggs, boiled or poached, cutlets, or anything else but eggs are essential. A cup of coffee will not hurt. After breakfast take a little exercise. Go shopping or call on a friend, sit and chat, and walk home again. At dinner, eat as much soup, meat and fish as you can, but do not omit to eat the rice with the fowl, maccaroni, sweet pastry, creams, etc. At desert, savory biscuits and other farinaceous preparations which contain eggs and sugar. Drink beer in moderation. Avoid acids, except salad. Eat sugar with your fruit. This advice is sound though there is no reason for eating so much, and, indeed, some for avoiding it; for the whole process depends upon introducing into the system oil, sugar and starch, none of which are components of lean meat. Two of these substances are contained in milk and cream in the greatest profusion, and the third exists most liberally in arrow root, corn meal and cracked wheat.

HEALTH IN MIDDLE AGE.—At the age o 35, mankind, according to some eminent authorities, is said to have reached the meridian of life, while others name 40 as the number of years we take to reach the hill-top of our earthly existence. Be this as it may, no one who has taken the ordinary means to preserve his health in youth and early manhood should feel other than young at the age of 45, from which period until that of 60, if life be spared to us, we shall do well to consider ourselves middle-aged, and to adopt greater precautions for the preservation of health and consequent happiness than might have been deemed necessary when youth was on our side, and if this is done, the period of middle-age should be one of the greatest activity, both of body and mind. What though the hairs are turning gray? That but shows one has suffered sorrow and survived it, or that, sorrow apart, he is a man who thinks. And what though the limbs be not quite so nimble? Calm enjoyments foster thought and generate habits of that true temperance which conduces to long life and contentment more than anything else in the world; and what ever some may say to the contrary, I maintain that the desire to live long is inherent in every healthy sane man or woman. To die of old age is the only natural death, and, if death may ever be said to be pleasant, the only pleasant one. Though younger than some of my professional brethren still in harness, I have nevertheless seen death in many shapes and forms, and in almost every case I have found the aged more resigned to the inevitable than those less advanced in years. for a well-spent life is like a well-spent day; at its close there is a wish for rest.—Cassel's Magazine.

A BUSINESS-LIKE WIDOW.—At a small country town there lately died a middle aged man, leaving a widow of thirty-five. At the funeral the deacon of the village alluded to the good qualities of the deceased and among others his generosity. He said the deceased had lent him some money once. Upon which the weeping widow raised her head and inquired how much, and whether he had paid it back or not.—St. Louis Times.

A lady recently had a premonition that as soon as she printed her first volume of poems she would die. The premonition was fulfilled. We would earnestly call the attention of a large number of poetical young ladies and gentlemen to the fact that things generally happen without any premonition at all.—Courier-Journal.

Pastor Crowly, late of the Shepherd's Fold N. Y., has been put to work shoe making at Blackwell's Island. He used to be a sort of a chaplain in the place, and he was known to very many of the convicts there. They all knew him when he entered, and they treated him with marked respect and kindness.

The happiness of your life depends upon the quality of your thoughts; therefore guard accordingly, and take care that you entertain no notions unsuitable to virtue and reasonable nature.

One Interesting Inference.

We more than once called attention to the fact, for it is an undeniable fact, that the people of this Republic are steadily increasing in the duration of life. Almost any one can see this from observation. If he live in a large city, or from reading the death notices in the newspapers. In yesterday morning's journals, for instance, the death of not less than ten persons are recorded as over 72 years of age one of them 79, and two 96. Nor is this in any way unusual. Almost any daily death record here will show a proportionate number of old people—meaning those of 65 or more. Sixty was considered old even 25 or 40 years ago, but now when a man of 60 dies, the comment often made is, he ought to have lived longer: young man yet. Indeed, persons of sound constitution, quiet habits, regular temperament, can, in a sense, grow old, for they are in perfect preservation of all their faculties, capable of any ordinary exercise of work, and still have a considerable future. Many of the most responsible places in firms and corporations in this city are held by men of 70 or thereabouts, and they evince no disposition to retire. New York is noted for vigorous old men. In no city on the continent, and in hardly any city in Europe, can so many hale, active men of 65 and upward be found. Walking in Broadway, Wall or Broad street, in Fifth avenue or any of the principal thoroughfares, one can hardly fail to be struck by the gray or white hairs and the wrinkled faces, coupled with erect, elastic forms and suppleness and rapidity of movement. There appears to be numberless ancient heads on comparatively young shoulders. The opinion long prevailed that rural regions and rural pursuits favored longevity; but if it were so once, which is very dubious, it is not so now. Great centres supply ease, comforts, material facilities and save an endless amount of friction, while the country, its monotony, lack of interest, fatiguing round of small concerns and very hard work wear on the strongest system. Men in cities generally live not only much more, but much longer.—New York Times.

Casualties in Battle.

The battle of Torgau, fought by Frederick the Great in 1760, is well known to have been one of the most murderously contested actions which has ever taken place, but until lately no trustworthy enumeration has ever been given of the killed, wounded and missing on either side. In the Militar Wochenblatt, the organ of the German general staff, carefully prepared tables were published of the losses suffered by the several Prussian regiments of cavalry and battalions of which took part in the action, and which numbered altogether 36,000 officers and men, lost a total of 16,000 officers and men, or about 60 per cent. of their aggregate effective. In the thirty-nine battalions which fought under the personal direction and immediate orders of the King, the proportion of losses was even greater, so that, after the action, the five battalions of grenadiers had to be formed into one battalion, the remnants of six battalions of two other regiments being also temporarily organized into one battalion. Of the 26,000 infantry soldiers who went into action, 3,350 were killed, 7,000 were wounded, and 3,130 were reported as missing. As a contrast to this terrible proportion of killed, wounded and missing, it may be mentioned that the loss at Gravelotte was only one-seventh of the whole number of troops engaged on both sides, at Worth and Mars-la-Tour one-sixth, at Spicheren one-eighth, at Koniggratz one-fifteenth only, and at Magenta and Solferino one-eleventh.

When Ralph Waldo Emerson was traveling in Egypt with his daughter, they met an Englishman who did all in his power to make it pleasant for them, and, when the time came for their separation, said: "You may wonder, sir, at my having overstepped my usual reserve so far as to become so intimate with you, but it is for the sake of a countryman of yours, one bearing the same name—Emerson—Ralph Waldo Emerson. He has done me much good, and I hope some time to cross the ocean to meet him." And Emerson never told him it was himself whom he sought.

This was the sage remark of an old Boston merchant: "I've stood here on State street for forty years, and I have seen men accumulate fortunes by speculation, and I have seen those fortunes disappear. I have seen men go up in wealth, wealth and go down, and I've always noticed that those persons who were content with three gains and six per cent. interest came out ahead in the long run."

An honest-looking countryman recently halted a citizen of Cleveland and inquired "Mister, kin you tell me where this here Mormon school is? I've got a chore a-feedin' there and I've brought a basket of chicken greenin's here for here." The citizen scratched his head, and then hastily thought of the rural gentleman in the Sunday School.—Ex.

There is one cow to every forty persons in this country. The chalk factories have a great deal to back against.

The greatest pleasure I know is to do a good action by stealth, and to be found out by accident.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 8.

General Logan's speech in the Senate, against the restoration of Fitz John Porter, was a masterly effort, for which he gets a good deal of credit. Old Senators declare that it was one of the best speeches, in the nature of the argument, and sentiment, they ever heard in that body, and its effect will be to make the Democrats hesitate about pushing through a measure to censure the Court Martial which convicted Porter, and give him all the rights which a loyal and efficient officer was entitled. Since this event I have heard a deal more about General Logan as a candidate for Vice President, should the first place be given to Senator Blaine, any other Eastern man. In fact I hear say there is quite a boom for Logan among Eastern men, and it is very certain that he would add immensely to the strength of the ticket.

The new rules of the House, which were adopted went into effect to-day. They will not as some people allege, expedite business. On the contrary they will retard it. Every effort the Republicans made to simplify the rules and take from them all objectionable points was voted down by the majority. They stood fast particularly in favor of retaining the power to tack irrevelent matter to appropriation bills, which looks as though they intended to force the same issue as at the extra session. If they do they will inevitably make some more political for us and bury themselves deeper next fall.

After wasting two months on these rules, the majority do not seem more ready to go to work than they were before. They will put through a deficiency bill in haste, because they dare not take the responsibility of delaying public business, just now, but the regular appropriation bills must await their pleasure, and even Randall hardly predicts a short session now. The middle of May has been his limit. The middle of July is more reasonable. The aptitude of Democrats to blunder is seen in the failure to pass the deficiency bill for the Printing office two months ago. They waited until the public printer was obliged to shut down, and then the inquiry had to be answered, why were his funds short? Because of the extra session. That is a spot on the Democratic record that will not rub out.

There is a deficiency of six millions in the Pensions appropriations. It is caused by the extra force made necessary in the arrears bill.

MAXWELL.

THE BODIE RAILROAD.—The Lyon County Times says that the surveying party on the Bodie extension of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad has the grade stakes set as far as Slunker Wells, in Churchill Valley. As from this point the route has not been decided upon, the main body of the party has returned to Carson. A reconnoitering party has gone out to determine whether they will make Walker Lake a portion of the route by means of boats or whether they will continue south through Mason Valley to Aurora and Bodie. If the Walker Lake route is adopted Candelaria will be the objective point. They will then be closer to several prominent camps on the eastern side of the lake.

Grass Valley, Nevada County, has had nearly three feet of snow this year—a most unusual thing.

Residentas Tom Fowler, has had his property at Natural King, attached by San Francisco merchants for $32,432.

One stockman sold of sheep were recently [illegible] county, for $3 75 per head.

Kearney's Sentence.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 16.—Police Judge Rix this morning sentenced Denis Kearney to six months imprisonment in the House of Correction, and to pay a fine of $1,000. The magnitude of the sentence was a surprise to Kearney, who had expected to get off with a nominal punishment. It is probable he will take the case to the Superior Court on habe s corpus.

Judge Rix to Kearney.

SAN FRANCISCO March 16th.—In passing sentence on Kearney the Judge said it was not his duty to punish the prisoner for similiar offences in the past, but to confine himself strictly to the consideration of the present case. He would pass judgment without prejudice, feeling or vindictiveness, but the sentence imposed would indicate his estimate of the gravity of the offence. He then passed sentence as before stated. Kearney received his sentence in silence, but his features expressed great surprise and indignation. He had previously stated that he expected to get off with a fine of $20, or thereabouts, and, after leaving Court he freely expressed his anger and chagrin, denouncing the penalty as outragous. His counsel not having demanded a jury trial, has no recource in that direction, and has filed an appeal to the Superior Court, filing bonds for $3,000. On the streets many expressions of gratification at Judge Rix's action is heard on all sides.

Legislative.

SACRAMENTO, March 16.—SENATE.—Gorley's mining bill came up for second reading on general file, the pending amendment being one offered by the Committee on corporations to sections 4, prohibiting brokers from hypothecating or selling stock. The amendment adds, "without the written consent of the party owning the stock, or due notice having been given him of the intention to sell or hypothecate the same. Conger this morning offered a substitute for the section, allowing brokers to sell the stock after giving the parties depositing with them notice of such intention. The subject was discussed by Enos, Gorman, Conger and West, for the bill, and Kane against, until the hour of recess.

Johnson moved to take from the table the Desty election contest. Satterwhite said that if it was the intention to declare the seat vacant and order an election, no objection would be made to take up the matter, but if it had been decided to seat Byrnes, then he should oppose the motion. Vote on taking the matter from the table, Ayes, 25; Noes, 14—rejected, it requiring two-thirds.

Public Meeting Language.

ASSEMBLY.—Tyler introduced a bill in relation to crimes against the public peace, makes it a misdemeanor to use at public meetings language calculated to incite a breach of the peace.

Governor Perkins has received a request from Brokers and prominent citizens of San Francisco, asking to be heard on the revenue bill before he affixes his signature, if such should be his intention. To-morrow, Wednesday, at 12, Noon, has been named for this purpose, and notice has bee n given to the supporters of the bill to be in attendance, if they so desire.

Man Shot.

MERCED, March 16.—At Sidney Payne's ranch, a few miles north of this place, this morning a boy named Tucker, aged 16 or 17, was attacked by Frank Hammond, a farmer, and kicked, cuffed, and otherwise abused. The boy ran into Payne's house, got a gun, and fired a charge of small shot into the back of Hammond's head and neck, inflicting, probably, fatal wounds. Hammond is a disagreeable and dangerous character.

Fire in Eureka.

EUREKA, March 16.—Last night a fire was caused by the explosion of a lamp. Three buildings were destroyed. Loss $25,000.

Homicide.

PORTLAND, OR., March 15.—At Gilman's saloon, Albany, last night, a young man, named Wheeler, shot to death Charles Taylor. The latter was aggressor. Woman figures in the case.

EASTERN.

Mc or Reno's Case.

CHICAGO, March 16th.—The Inter-Ocean Washington correspondent says it will be recollected that Major Reno, to prevent dismissal from the army, telegraphed to the President, asking to be allowed to resign. The matter was discussed in the Cabinet and Reno was notified that his resignation would be accepted, but it was not forthcoming. Several weeks passed, but no resignation appeared; finally Judge Newell, his counsel, appeared here to beg for money, and it was apparent that the resignation scheme was merely a ruse to gain time in order to secure influence to prevent Hayes from dismissing him. In the meantime the friends of Reno are making a strong effort to secure a mitigation of sentence. Reno, now refuses to resign, by advice of friends, on the ground that it would be a confession of guilt. The members of the Court that tried him unanimously recommended mercy, saying the articles of war made their verdict unavoidable. Generals Sherman and Terry endorse the recommendation, and Hayes is under powerful influence.

A Clergyman in Trouble.

ATLANTA, GA., March 16.—Mrs. R. O. Douglass filed her complaint in a suit for divorce on Saturday. Douglass went to Rev. Mr. Faulte, an Episcopal clergyman, and charged him with destroying the peace of his family, and ordered him not to preach on Sunday, saying, "If you do, I am damned if I don't kill you. The Church was guarded; Douglass rode up; a policeman chased him away, but returning he was lodged in jail. The whole city is in a ferment.

Massacre by Indians.

DENVER, COL., March 16.—An Alamosa special says that reliable information of late Indian depredations have been received by a private letter, dated Silvertown, Col., 9th, containing the following: We have news of a terrible Indian massacre near Blue Mountain. Joseph Lacome, Joseph Chaves, Patrick Kane, Wm. Trintrom, Daniel Slockhammer, and several others were killed. Several bodies have been found and buried. Great excitement prevails in Ames Valley. The killed had recently gone on a prospecting tour.

Seward's Resignation Requested.

CHICAGO, March 16.—The Inter-Ocean Washington special says that the President has requested the resignation of F. W. Seward, Minister to China, and it is understood if it is not forthcoming he will be removed. In the meantime his settlement of accounts with the Department of State suspended.

A Liquor-Dealing Priest.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 16.—U. S. Deputy Collector Robinson, of Westfield has obliged Rev. A. B. Dufresne, a French Catholic priest, to settle for selling liquors without a U. S. license. Dufresne left for Canada. He had four casks of liquor in the basement of the church, in the room where the juvenile school was held, and several persons are ready to testify to having bought of him. He is the priest who told his people not to patronize Joseph Parker, a hackman, who had displeased him, and so destroyed his business, for which Parker recovered $3,400 damages.

Conviction of Murder.

DALLAS, TEX., March 15.—T. G. Kendall, who recently killed the desperado, Brown, to save the life of his partner, the County Attorney, of San Santa, who was afterwards waylaid and murdered, has been convicted of the murder of Brown, which verdict excites great indignation. Had Kendall not been under special protection of the rangers he would have been shot dead, a pistol was drawn on him and cousin, but the rangers showed their Winchesters. The Jury declared that they found the verdict of guilty, with five years imprisonment, as a measure of safety to Kendall and themselves.

Marine Disaster.

PENTWALER, Mich. March 16th.—Two little tugs, the Gem of Pentwaler, and the Lament, started from here on a $25 race, Yesterday the former arrived at Ludington, her destination, but the latter not appearing, search was made, and he was discovered capsized, with the crew missing, doubtless drowned. Charles Lament, his son George and Palmer Hill, of this place, were on board.

Iowa Prohibition Law.

DES MOINES, March 16.—The House, by 66 to 26, passed the Senate substitute for House Prohibitio bill. It prohibits the manufacture, sale, or keeping, as a beverage, any intoxicating liquors, including ale, wines and beer. The General Assembly shall fix suitable penalties for its violation.

High Water.

RICHMOND, March 16.—Heavy rains have swollen all the tributaries of James river, above here, and a serious flood is feared. Merchants are removing goods. The river at Lynchburg has risen about six feet, and still rising rapidly.

Floods.

MOBILE, March 16.—A special from Selma and Rome says that overflows seriously threaten both towns. Indications point to a worse flood at Selma than in 1871 or '75. At Rome the water is in the telegraph battery room.

Beecher Refused.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 16.—The lower House has refused the use of their Hall to Henry Ward Beecher for a lecture.

FOREIGN.

More Trouble.

LONDON, March. 16.—A dispatch from Cabul states the Afghans have recaptured and sacked Charikar, a town about 50 miles north-east of Cabul heretofore held by a mixed force of English troops and Afghan allies. The assault was in the nature of a surprise to the English portion of garrison, although it was suspected. The Afghan allies had an inkling that it was contemplated, and behaved in a cowardly manner, evidently being desirous of deserting to the enemy, rather than assisting. The result was a complete route of garrison, most of whom escaped to the mountains and will attempt to make their way to Cabul through the different passes between the two places.

Gladstone has started on an electioneering tour. A meeting of the Radical Association, of Lambeth, to support Henry Labouchere, editor of Truth, for Parliament, ended in a free fight.

Peace.

BERLIN, March 16.—The Pope having agreed that the names of priests appointed to livings are henceforth to be officially communicated by authorities, peace between Berlin and Vatican has become possible.

THE CHRONICLE.

BODIE, MARCH 17, 1880.

The CHRONICLE Office is on the second floor of "Goodson's Building," east side of Main street, between Standard Avenue and Green street.

JOB PRINTING.—Job printing of the finest description will be furnished at this office at Sacramento prices.

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

ARRIVALS YESTERDAY.

Mrs Wagner, C. Hoffman, Mrs. Bell Farrel and daughter, J. Marks, Mr. Wagner, M. J. Bell, C. Mates.

DEPARTURES—YESTERDAY.

R Montague, Mrs. Levy, E. J. O'Malley, J. S Stockdale, A. Sayer, Mrs C. Williams.

PETERSON'S COURT.—Harry Course was arraigned for trial before Justice Peterson yesterday afternoon on a charge of stealing groceries from the Grand Central Hotel. He was found guilty and fined $50 as he was minus that amount, he was accomodated with board and lodging for 50 days at the expense of the county.

Charles Wamble plead guilty to a charge of fighting and was fined $22, which he paid.

A. Lourons was up before Judge Peterson yesterday for being too demonstrative with his fists. He plead not guilty, and will be tried at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

LAND CONTEST.—The timber land contested case of L. A. LaGrange, Wm. Thompson and W. E. Bush contestants against Alcarz, Knight. Reading and Buckley, applicants for patents for certain timber land lying east of Mono Lake, is now on trial in the U. S. Land office before Register Goodall. Messrs Reddy, Owen and Gorham appearing for claimants, and P. B. Ryan and R. S. Miner for protestants. Messrs Owen and Gorham argued a motion to dismiss the case, and Mr. Miner replied. Mr. Ryan and Reddy will close the argument on the motion.

MALPRACTICE.—The late case of malpractice in this town should not be allowed to pass unnoticed by those in authority. If we have those among us who are guilty of such wrong practice they should be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. It is said that there have been several such cases within the past year, and resulting in the death of the parties. Our medical society should look into this matter and bring the guilty party or parties to the bar of justice.

LENIENT JURYMEN.—It is said that our jurymen are becoming too lenient, and that it is getting to be almost impossible to secure a conviction. If our citizens desire their town to continue orderly, and to keep the rougher element in their places, they must, when on a jury, do their duty fearlessly.

NEW COMPANY.—Articles of incorporation of the New Homer Mining Company, to mine in Mono county, have been filed below. Capital stock, $1,000,000. Directors—A. J. Ralston, G. W. Butterfield, James Newlands, John Crockett, C. Van Dyck Hubbard and M. B. Kellogg.

GUILTY OF ASSAULT.—Nick Meadows, who assaulted Mrs. Martin with a stick of wood a short time ago, has been tried at Bridgeport and found guilty of assault and battery only, the papers in the case being defective.

A GREEN HORSE.—Some little excitement was created on Main street yesterday by a man riding up and down the street on a horse that was not bridle wise. The rider had several narrow escapes from being thrown, but luckily he received no injury.

NEWMAN'S COURT.—Charles Willard was up before Justice Newman yesterday for drunkenness, and using vulgar language. It is said that the case was a clear one against him, and yet the jury of six acquitted him.

BULLION SHIPMENTS.—The following shipments of bullion were made yesterday: Standard Company, two bars, $45, 835 80; Bodie, two bars $6,318 03; Bulwer, one bar $10,900 50; Noonday, two bars $6,471 98, making a total of $69,526 41.

THE STAGE OFFICE.—The new Stage office at the Grand Central Hotel has been neatly fitted up and there is always a large crowd on hand at the arrival and departure of the stages.

CONCERT HALL.—McAlpin's old theater was opened last evening as a first-class concert hall. It has been newly fitted up in the finest style.

TO MILL CREEK.—W. H. Ellis goes to Mill Creek to-day, and if things look promising there, he will probably establish a news depot and branch store.

KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS.—The Knights of Pythias will meet at the Engine House, hereafter.

A. C. Pratt, Superintendent of the Nevada and California Telegraph Company, will visit Belleville, Candelara and Columbus with a view to establishing telegraphic communication with that section of country.

Three hundred members of the New York Tammany General Committee express the intention of going to the Cincinnati National Convention. A Commissioner soon goes forward to secure quarters.

One of the 12-inch rifled guns, provided for in the Fortification bill passed by the Senate, will be placed at the entrance of San Francisco harbor.

The Steamer India, which arrived at New York from Naples on Friday, has sixty Italians for San Francisco.

BAKERSFIELD is infested by burglars.

[COMMUNICATION.]

BRIDGEPORT, March 15th, 1880.

EDITOR CHRONICLE:—We note in a copy of the Bodie Standard of the 10th an account of a "Josh" perpetrated on the operator at Bridgeport, "by the boys." So far as the operator is concerned he takes no stock in it whatever. But to the initiated it seems that some notice should be taken of the aforesaid "Josh." The general reader would be likely to get the idea that the perpetrators of the "Josh" are the real solid citizens of the place. The said operator has been a resident of this place for two years, and is widely known all over this coast, as an accommodating employee of the Nevada & California Telegraph Company, and as an accomplished, honorable gentleman, noted for his unassuming, gentlemanly qualities. Now, your readers will readily observe that a personable young gentleman, possessed of the aforesaid qualifications, would naturally be favorably received by the young ladies of any locality on earth. This, your correspondent can certainly vouch was the fact, and in conclusion he would as positively assert was the reason of the perpetration of the thin and absolete "Josh," and still more poorly written up by an enemy, prompted by envy of the aforesaid operator.

CITIZEN.

The CHRONICLE, one of Bodie's most prosperous and newsy journals, has been converted into a six-column daily. Its proprietors have been pursuing the right course to win success, and we hope the enterprise displayed by them in the recent change will redound to their advantage, and the good of the community.—Hollister Telegraph.

On March 1st the BODIE CHRONICLE appeared as a daily, and the first number was a credit to the proprietors and the city.—Bakersfield Courier-Californian.
